CENTER FOR ADVENTIST MINISTRY TO PUBLIC UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Mission Statement:

Preparing public campuses for the imminent return of Christ

Our Objectives:

- To proclaim the Three Angels' Messages in an academic environment
- To teach Adventist students how to win their friends, faculty, and staff to Christ
- To provide training in the establishment of Adventist fellowships and congregations on major secular campuses
- To assist churches in training and equipping students as soul-winning agents on the public campuses they have chosen to attend
- To instill in program participants a commitment to life-long ministry

Our Expectations:

CAMPUS is attempting to launch a Bible-based revival movement in which every student is a missionary. Thus, it only seeks team members that are committed to the Word of God, radical discipleship, and personal evangelism.

“...a work that must be done.”

Ellen G. White
Selected Messages, Volume 3, p.324

APPLICATION ESSAY QUESTIONS

Please write a BRIEF answer to each of the essay questions, thoughtfully, and prayerfully. These questions are designed to give us an idea how you think about key principles of ministry. Be sure to attach these answers to your application.

1. What first attracted you to the idea of becoming a campus missionary intern? What do you hope to gain from this experience?
2. What do you perceive as the greatest personal strengths you would bring to the team?
3. Describe your Christian experience, telling of your background, conversion, growth, and current level of spiritual maturity. Describe your present devotional life.
4. How do you view your relationship to the organized Seventh-day Adventist Church? Do you feel you are in harmony with its message, mission, and direction?
5. If you are not married, describe your views on dating and courtship. How do you feel about our non-dating policy while serving as a campus missionary intern?
6. Briefly describe your relationship with your immediate family. What role does your family play in your life? How supportive are they of your interest?
7. Describe your evangelistic experience. What kind of skills do you see as essential to raise an army of workers “rightly trained”?
8. Campus ministry often involves difficult science/faith issues. What is your position in the controversy between creation and evolution--and why?
9. What is your understanding of the purpose of Scripture and the Spirit of Prophecy? What role does it play in your personal life?
10. What are your future plans after completing our campus mission volunteer program? Describe in detail your ministry objectives.
